WELCOME CHRISTMAS ... WELCOME HOME

Written By: Rev. Heather Weaver-Orosz

Dear Friends,

I think I just attended my first Christmas party of the season. I try to hold to poppies before poinsettias (all in time, yes?), yet some things just come upon us anyway, at exactly the right time.

Technically, it was a book club gathering: the latest of the Book & Bake series so beautifully designed and led by Jen, coordinated by Victoria, attended by grateful folks like me. We read a book in advance (or we finish it after), we talk about it for a while, and then we do some themed baking to remind us of a salient thread. This time, most of the delicious results were set aside for sale at Treats & Treasures. Minus some essential quality control tasting, it was the perfect ending to a perfect gathering.

How was that a Christmas party?

It had all the essential ingredients, pun entirely intended. There was a mix of people, some meeting for the first time but all friends by the time it was over. There was good food, good conversation, lots of laughter, and more quiet moments with a collective attempt to answer big questions. Most of all, there was deep joy in one another's continued...

WELCOME CHRISTMAS ... CONTINUED

company. It was the gift that carried us home and into the next day of facing this complicated world. It all happened to be built on a book about Christmas, and relationships, and a beautiful ideal that we pray to know someday, for real. In retrospect, we were missing a background playlist, with those favourite seasonal songs and hymns. If you weren't there, then we missed you, too.

Maybe what I'm really describing is a worship service, just like those we are preparing for Advent and Christmas and beyond. Add in music and the essential ingredients have so much in common: good, ever-growing company; intentional connection and welcome laughter; quiet moments where we seek wisdom and sit with big emotions, big wonderings. Through it all, there is joy in our diversity, and hope for tomorrow.

When it comes to worship, the centre of it all, of course, is God. This Advent, again, we centre our hearts and our lives on God who comes among us, in every gathering, reminding us that we can begin again; wrapping us in the pure gift of Love, eternal and unconditional, shining bright in the story of a family at their tender beginning in Bethlehem.

What a gift it will be to worship with you this coming season. Let's not miss the chance to be together, to welcome Christmas together. Let's not miss this moment, to celebrate the birth of Jesus.

With love to you all Heather †

FAMILY CHRISTMAS

The Macdonald Family

Christmas is a time for us to get together with our family, near and far, in person or through the magic of technology. We enjoy reading 'Twas The Night Before Christmas, and watching the anticipation of the youngsters. It's a time to enjoy traditional Christmas fare – turkey with all the trimmings and yummy desserts. It's a time to celebrate the birth of Christ, enjoy the Christmas music, the Christmas message and Christmas Eve worship. †

40 YEARS OF CHRISTMAS TRADITION

The Black and Hammill Families

On a Friday evening in mid-December in the '70s the Hammill family joined the Blacks for a pre-Christmas dinner (with nine children 12 and under). After dinner several other families arrived, each bringing some Christmas baking or other treats to be shared as dessert later in the evening.

Some welcoming punch was enjoyed and soon, accompanied by Gertrude on the piano and Jim strumming his guitar, everyone joined in singing familiar carols. Once the carol sheets - and the carolers - were exhausted it was time to visit the heavily laden dessert table. Coffee, tea and good fellowship completed the evening.

And so a tradition was born! For more than four decades the two families took turns hosting this carol sing, enriching the Christmas season for many - until Covid threatened to become an unwelcome guest. Joyful noise, indeed! ✝

GERMAN CHRISTMAS TRADITIONS The Stangenberg Family

On Christmas Eve, my father decorated the Christmas tree but we were only allowed to see it once we got home from the 5 p.m. evening church service. It was an exciting moment when he opened the door to the living room and we stood in awe of the beautiful, lit Christmas tree. It was decorated with tinsel, gold and red bulbs and beeswax candles. The smell of the burning candles was wonderful.

Sitting around the tree, we sang the traditional Christmas carols and then we were allowed to open our gifts. We now could enjoy the “bunte Teller” (colourful plates) with all the wonderful treats: one apple, one orange, figs, dates, cookies, marzipan and chocolates.

On Christmas Day we enjoyed a perfectly cooked goose with red cabbage, mashed potatoes and apple and cranberry sauce. We fondly remember these wonderful Christmases and tried to copy them here in Canada. The only exception we made was to put up the Christmas tree early in the season. †

BLESSING

Beloved, you are not alone on this winding journey. May the companionship of fellow sojourners reflect the love of the One who - in becoming flesh - chose to journey alongside us. May the quilt of life warm you from the chill of isolation, and may the Spirit move you to compassion as you cultivate community, even in times of uncertainty.

Life often unfolds in ways that surprise us, but that's not necessarily a bad thing. Have you felt God's presence when your life took an unexpected turn?

SAVE THE DATE! DECEMBER 8 - CANDLELIGHT SERVICE

Written by: Andy Choles

The much-valued tradition continues. The annual Candlelight Service will be held this year on Sunday, December 8 beginning at 7 p.m. at the Christ First Port Credit Campus 151 Lakeshore Road. “Christmas Reflections” will combine music with scripture and reflections by the main characters who were witnesses to the birth of Christ. The choir will be joined by the Bell Canto to provide musical reflections with plenty of opportunity for congregational singing of Christmas Carols, including Silent Night by candlelight to end the presentation. Of course, no Christmas celebration is complete without festive refreshments provided by Welcoming & Fellowship. All are welcome. A donation bin will be provided to collect non-perishable food items for the Compass.†

A CHRISTMAS MEMORY

Leslie shared a cherished memory:

“One of my favorite Christmas memories is teaching Sean, then 4 years old, a verse from the Advent hymn “In the Bleak Midwinter”. His Sunday school class was going to sing the verse “what can I bring Him...” Of course, all the prep was in vain - he just stood with his class and grinned.

It’s been over 40 years, but I remember it as if it was last year.” †

NONPROFIT NETWORKING

Written by: Victoria Keane

After a quiet summer, our Nonprofit Network got back into the swing of things this past October with our first gathering of the season! We were joined by nearly 30 attendees from a dozen organizations as we shared a delicious breakfast, accompanied by an inspiring workshop from Carolyn Smith. Carolyn may be familiar to some, as she currently works at St. Paul's United in Oakville, and was recently ordained in the United Church of Canada. She also provides coaching to a range of audiences, from couples to professional leaders. Using M&M's, Carolyn inspired us to have Mindful Moments - addressing the struggle patterns that leaders and changemakers fall into, and how to trust ourselves more to overcome them with integrity and confidence.

South Mississauga Nonprofit Networking was established as a result of grant funding that Christ First received from The United Church of Canada Foundation. We have recently submitted our two-year report, and eagerly await to receive news of the status of our third and final year of grant funding. †

AFFIRMING MINISTRIES

Christina Georgina Rossetti was a 19th-century English poet whose work ranged from Christmas carols to lesbian love poetry. A devout Christian who never married (though she called off two engagements with two different men on religious grounds and rejected a third man’s proposal for unclear reasons), it is widely believed that Christina Rossetti had lesbian inclinations. She is considered by many to be one of Britain’s greatest Victorian poets. Born in London into an artistic family, she was encouraged when she began writing poems at 12 years old. She began experiencing bouts of illness when she was 14, and spent the rest of her life managing prolonged illness. In 1872, she wrote the words to “In the Bleak Midwinter” which was published posthumously after Gustav Holst set it to music in 1906. Her poem “Love Came Down at Christmas” also became a well known carol. She passed just days after Christmas, on Dec. 29, 1894 at the age of 64.

“In the bleak mid-winter
 Frosty wind made moan,
 Earth stood hard as iron,
 Water like a stone;
 Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
 Snow on snow,
 In the bleak mid-winter
 Long ago.”

The Affirming Study Group of Christ First is proud to have hosted a Bible Study this past November based on Donald Schmidt’s resource,

“The Bible and Homosexuality for Progressive Christians.” Stay tuned for more study opportunities in the new year.

We kicked off the Christmas season with our latest Book and Bake! All those who registered were invited to read Rachel Spangler’s “Christmas Mouse” - a sweet romance of two women falling in love over their love of Christmas. We then joined together to bake a tasty treat inspired by the novel!

FAMILY Zone

Written By: Victoria Keane

I am always amazed and impressed with the energy and enthusiasm that is present on a Sunday morning as our youngest members run down the aisle to join me for Children's Time. No amount of planning can ever prepare me for the wondrous statements that are shared during this time, and the fun and curiosity always carry over into our Sunday School classroom. This past fall, we've tackled big questions like, "what is Communion all about?" "how can I be a peacekeeper" and "do you prefer dogs or cats??" It's the little things that turn into the big things!

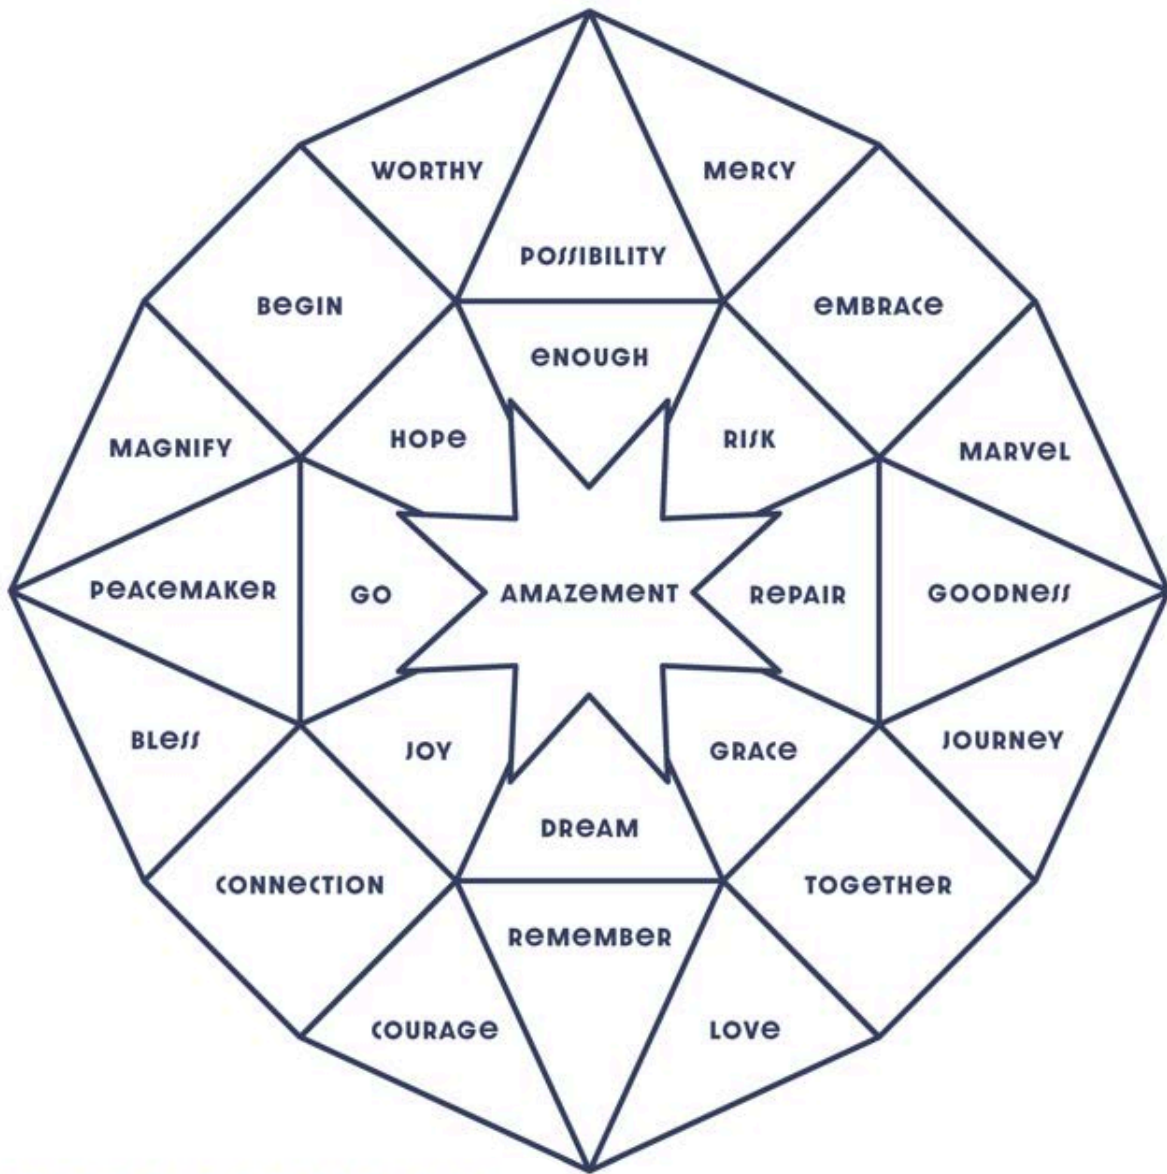

This school year, we began offering a new program called PA Play Days - while the public school board is on a PA Day, we are hosting a full day of programming that focuses on friendship building and feeling at home within the church walls. This has been a great way for the kids to spend the day, and a help to parents who don't get those days off work. We plan on continuing this program into the new year.

Looking into December, we have a few extra special events coming up for kids and families, so please make sure to check the Advent Calendar. My favourite is always our Children's Advent Day - on the first Saturday of Advent, we will learn and share and re-tell the Christmas story through books, songs, crafts, and food!

Finally, we will bring the year to a close with our annual Noon Years Eve party! On Tuesday, December 31, all are welcome to join us from 11am-1pm where we will ring in the New Year at noon! A great way to celebrate without having to wait up until midnight. This event is open to all. †

JOY AND CELEBRATION

You are a blessing.
 If you hear nothing else,
 if the wind howls,
 if your brain runs amok,
 if rebuttals and denials line up like little toy soldiers,
 then hear this—
 you are a blessing.

I knew it the first moment I met you heard your name
 learned there are 7 billion of us
 on this planet.
 I knew it in my bones,
 the way my feet know the way home.
 You are a blessing.

For our creating God
 breathed life into your being.
 And there is simply no way that,
 along with that life,
 some of God's goodness
 didn't slip right in.

So tell the rebuttals to rest.
 Tell the toy soldiers to find another hill,
 because this one is reserved for joy and celebration.
 You are a blessing.
 Breathe it in.

BLESSING

God knows you completely and loves you fully. As you draw near to Jesus, rest assured that you are not a mere face in the crowd but a beloved child of God, known and called by name. In light of this glorious truth, may you be a bearer of peace and harbinger of love today and forevermore.

IS SURVIVING CHRISTMAS MY NEW CHRISTMAS TRADITION? The Simpson Family

With three young boys, twins age six and the eldest age eight, I spend a lot of my energy surviving, just getting through the days. The Christmas season, as wonderful as it can be, adds a lot to my plate. Whether it be running from one event to another, family dinners, get togethers, Christmas shopping, holiday concerts, decorating the Christmas tree, stringing the outside lights, baking and decoration Christmas cookies, it's a lot! I sometimes need to remember to enjoy the moments, embrace the chaos, that these are the good times. I plan, plan, plan and then let go, turn up the music and lean into the joy. So yes, we are surviving. Joyfully, loudly, chaotically surviving and creating tons of fun along the way. ✝

ANSWERING YOUR QUESTIONS ABOUT WORSHIP

WHY DON'T WE HAVE BULLETINS ANYMORE?

Written by: Rev. Heather Weaver Orosz

I will begin my answer with a story... about growing up in Central United Church, Port Colborne, in the 1970s and 80s, and some of the standard parts of our Sunday morning experience. There would be teams of two standing as greeters, at both the Delhi and Catharine Street doors. There would be choir rehearsal downstairs until just before 10, at which point they would assemble in the narthex. There would be great silence, facing forward, to listen to the sung introit; and there would be printed bulletins – an outline of the service – in every worshipper's hand.

Worship there is very different now. Time and circumstances brought many changes. I expect a similar narrative could be named here. I arrived in 2022, at the slow end of the pandemic, so I only know things from this side of that threshold, but I hear now and again that question about change, specifically about bulletins.

I understand the sentiment. I remember the ways we could participate in prayers, and read community announcements. The biggest difference between then and now is summed up in economy and technology. For example, we have adopted and adapted to beautiful ways that allow for much better, more efficient sharing, to offer news, participate in the service, and so much more. The screen (on which we rely for live-streaming to reach many more, in the moment at home and long after, at long distances) holds every element of worship. The visual accessibility is enormously improved and, to help with hearing access especially, we have some full text copies available in hard copy. The service outline is also sent out in email and posted, for all to access, anytime; and yes, there are limited copies of each outline, but they are primarily for service leaders and participants, to know when they're up. Preparing anything more is an enormous commitment of time and resources, and doubles up on everything else we are doing already.

Through it all – the time, the changes, the ever-widening scope of our care – we are blessed when we worship together. We are keeping our eyes on Jesus and his example; doing our best to hold the doors open wide, building a house and a faith family, that stretches and grows with every new opportunity.

See you Sunday morning! ✝

CHRISTMAS AT GRAMMA'S AND GRAMPY'S HOUSE

The Watters Family

For the past several years, it has become our tradition that Christmas is at Gramma's and Grampy's house, at least for our Ontario families and sometimes our New Brunswick family. We look forward to a full house for at least two or three days and many helping hands! Last Christmas Eve I looked around and saw some pretty tired people so I suggested that we attend the Christmas Eve service virtually in our family room. We dressed in our pj's, assembled our candles and water and crackers, and sat ourselves down in front of the big screen TV. It was a meaningful experience for us, especially the candlelight and Silent Night. Is this a new tradition? I'm not sure, but if it is, this time we will have milk and cookies! ✝

PRAY

Breathe deeply as you gaze upon the image to the left. Imagine placing yourself in this scene. What do you see? How do you feel? Get quiet and still, offering a silent or spoken prayer to God.

HARVEST

Maybe none of it matters.
 Maybe you can't make a difference
 Or maybe that watermelon see you spit out over the summer will grow into a green orb, full of sticky sweet fruit. Maybe the rain will nourish it. Maybe your mother's hands will pull it from the vine, slice it into wedges, and place it on the dining room table. Maybe the neighbors will come over and chomp into that soft pink fruit, juicy water running down their chins. Maybe you will laugh at the shared experience, at this garden-grown communion,
 and maybe the stars will shine brighter that night.

People say the problems of the world are too big to make a difference,
 but surely those people have forgotten the fruit that grows
 from one little seed.

CHRISTMAS COOKIE BAKING

The Cowie Family

When my daughters were teenagers, I decided to enlist their help with Christmas cookie baking. We would bake at least seven different varieties in one day. Everyone got to pick a favourite kind. We formed quite an assembly line - mixing, shaping, baking and decorating. Once they moved out, it was a good excuse to spend a day together and they got to fill cookie tins to take with them. Our tradition continues with my seven year old granddaughter Alexis. Decorating is her favourite part! ✝
